

The Lord Heareth and Delivereth the Righteous

Psalm 34:17-19

A - The Lord heareth [their cry] and delivereth the righteous out of all their troubles

B - The Lord is nigh unto the broken heart

B - The Lord saveth such as be of a contrite spirit

A - The Lord delivereth the righteous out of all his troubles

The Good News here is that the Most High, the High and Lofty One that inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy, dwells to revive the spirit of the humble and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. {Isaiah 57:15}

Thus, here we have a passage which inspires all who cry to the Lord, that He will deliver them out of all their troubles. If they lack humility or contrition of heart, fear not, just allow the “High and Lofty One” to revive you with a humble spirit and a contrite heart. He will do it, just let Him for the glory of God and your good.
